Credit Cards Products and promotional materials can be purchased with Company-accepted credit cards. Members may only use credit cards belonging to them, or for which they are authorized users. Members who are found to process orders without the consent of the cardholder are in violation of federal and state laws and will be subject to immediate termination.

Products, services and promotional materials can be purchased with Company-accepted credit cards. While it is preferred for each Member to use his/her own personal credit card, we do understand that is not always possible. For this reason we do provide alternative payment methods for individuals that do not own a credit card. Additional information about these alternative payments methods is available through our Corporate Home Page and the Home Office. We perform regular account maintenance, if during the course of this regular account maintenance it comes to our attention that a credit card belonging to someone other than the account holder is listed on the account, that credit card will be immediately removed from the account. Repeated use of 3rd party credit cards will result in immediate termination of the account in question.

Members that use their credit cards for purchases of our products and services are assuming all responsibility for purchases of our products and services. Please see the Cancellation, and Return Policies for information regarding refunds. Once a credit card has been added to an account, it will remain on that account until it is removed by the account holder. If the account holder does not have enough funds in their Commission Account to pay for the next scheduled monthly purchase, the credit card on file will be charged for that purchase. Any credit card listed in our system must have the name of the cardholder as it is listed with the issuing bank and the current billing address on file at all times. It is the responsibility of the individual Member to maintain and manage their credit card.

Chargebacks

Members cannot misrepresent the Company and any of the policies, which includes our refund and return policies, in any way. Misrepresenting the Company will result in disciplinary action which may include the termination of your Membership.

Any Member causing an unwarranted chargeback to the Company due to an unauthorized transaction will be subject to immediate termination. The credit card used in the disputed charge will be immediately blacklisted ensuring it cannot be using again. If the credit card in question is used on any other accounts, it will be removed from those accounts as well.

We reserve the right to debit the commission account balance of the Sponsor or Upline the $30.00 chargeback fee for each chargeback received. Repeated receipt of unwarranted chargebacks will result in disciplinary action of the Sponsor and Upline and may include the termination of their Membership when such conduct becomes known to the Company. Additionally, IP addresses used on accounts cancelled due to chargebacks may be blocked.

Credit card disputes must be presented to the Company in writing within 6 months from the date of transaction.

A Customer is a person who, upon completing a Customer Application (by phone, fax or online), may purchase Company product(s) directly from the Company at a Member price.

Since Customer product orders are for personal consumption only, and not for resale, Customers will not be required to submit any tax identification information.

Customers select or are assigned an account Username once the Customer Application is accepted by the Company. The Company reserves the right to refuse to accept any Customer Application for any reason.

Customers may only order under their respective account Username. A Customer does not participate in the Compensation Plan and does not earn commissions. Customers have no renewal requirements or obligations.

A Customer must abide by the Terms and Conditions as set forth by the Company.

Members may not bind the Company or incur any debt or expense in the name of the Company or open any checking account on behalf of, for, or in the name of the Company.

The Company shall not be liable for any debts or liabilities that a Member may incur, whether or not such liabilities are incurred during the term of the Agreement.

Members must always identify themselves as a "Member" in all written and verbal communications. The Company reserves the right to request information about any Member's business and downline to ensure compliance with this Agreement.

The prospective U.S. applicant must possess and provide a valid Employer Identification Number (EIN), Social Security Number (SSN) or taxpayer identification number (TIN).

Applicants who choose not to provide required information may sign up as a Customer. All applicants must be 18 years of age or older.

Members are required to maintain current contact and address information in the company database at all times.

If you submit a false EIN, SSN or TIN to the Company, you may be subject to immediate termination and will be assessed any fees charged to the Company by the Federal Government in connection with any such false reporting.

Members are solely responsible for registering and/or obtaining city, state or provincial licenses required to sell Company products.

Establishing a Corporation, Partnership or Trust

U.S. Member may own and operate his or her Membership as a corporation, a limited liability company or as any other business entity, which is authorized by the law of the state in which the Member is located as a legal business entity provided it complies with certain requirements and conditions. If any type of business entity operates as a Member, the appropriate EIN or TIN must be provided.

Combining a Third-Party Agreement with your PYUR Life Business

A "Third Party" includes, but is not limited to, another Member or an unrelated individual/company offering business-building services or related/non-related goods and services.

The Company does not endorse or permit any third-party income representations, guaranties or other such representation to build your downline organization. In addition, the Company does not endorse any third-party individual or company making income representations through the use of third-party sales ads.

If you choose to enter into any such agreement with a third-party, you do so at your own risk. The company will not be bound by any such agreement or contract. The Company will not reimburse you for costs incurred as a result of any agreement or contract described above.

You may not enter into third-party contracts combining any aspect of the Company business, as presented by the Company, with another offering having to do with the sale of the Company products, opportunity or the Compensation Plan with any other non-Company component, agreement, business plan, method or device. The Company does not honor these agreements. The Company will not settle disputes resulting from third-party agreements or between Members.

The Company does not allow the PYUR Life Products or Compensation Plan to be presented/offered in conjunction with any other business plan or other form of business. Violation of this Policy will be considered a breach of your agreement and subject to termination of your Membership.

Member Performance

Members agree to perform bona fide selling and distributing functions in marketing PYUR Life's products to the consumer. Members are not required to establish a downline sales organization. If a Member does establish a downline sales organization, he/she agrees to supervise, train and have ongoing communications and coordination with his/her downline sales organization as provided in these polices.

Members shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company and its shareholders, officers, directors and employees from and against any claim, demand, liability, loss, action, causes of action, costs or expenses (including but not limited to reasonable attorney's fees) arising or alleged to arise in connection with, or related to, Members' representations, acts or operation in violation of the Agreement, or Members' negligence or willful or intentional misconduct.

Pricing

Members purchase products from the Company at an established price. The Company may change its prices without prior notice. The Company may suggest a desirable retail price for the Member's resale of the products, but the Member is free to set his/her own price for resale. The Company does not require its Members to sell any product at a specified retail price; however, the Company does not allow Members to advertise a price to the public that is less than our published retail prices. The Company strongly recommends that no Member sell products at a retail price less than the price charged by the Company. It is in the best interest of the Company and the Member to maintain the integrity, order and uniformity of the Company's marketing and distribution process. The Company can terminate a Member who interferes with maintaining that process.

Auction or Online Market Place Sites

The Company strictly prohibits the resale of the products on any auction or multi-seller market place sites. This includes but is not limited to selling on eBay, Sears and Amazon. Selling on these types of sites will result in immediate termination of your account. Selling items on these sites voids the product warranty.

Retail Stores

Members are authorized to sell PYUR Life products in retail establishments as long as the following criteria are met:

- Members must maintain control of all product advertising; ensuring product prices are not displayed or advertised in any manner not approved by the Company.

- Members must comply with all advertising policies and regulations governing the use of business and product claims and testimonials.
- Members are responsible to ensure that any product sampling is conducted in strict accordance with all the label laws information and instruction. As with all product transactions, direct customers to read and follow the product label instructions prior to use.

The Company reserves the right to ultimately decide whether an establishment is a proper place for the sale of PYUR Life products.

Display Policy

To exhibit or display an unmanned PYUR Life Opportunity display at a mall or other exhibits, a Member must obtain and comply with the current policies regarding such practice. Contact the PYUR Life Compliance Department for the most recent PYUR Life Opportunity Display policies.

Trade Shows and Expositions

You may display and procure orders for Company products at trade shows and expositions. However, Company and product literature must be Company produced and/or approved literature, and you must identify yourself as a PYUR Life Member. You must keep the Company products and materials separate from any third-party offerings. Educational materials must be physically separated from the Company products and promotional materials.

Misrepresenting the Company

Presenting the Company, Compensation Plan, employees or products in a deceptive, fraudulent or misleading way will result in disciplinary action and may include the termination of your Membership when such conduct becomes known to the Company.

Claims and Representations

Because the Company sells dietary supplements and cosmetics focused on maintaining overall wellbeing, it is important that you understand the laws regarding product claims. What a Member says or prints must not imply that PYUR Life products cause any actual biological/physiological change in the body. If it does, do not say it. Under Federal Law, phrases, slogans and statements that focus on appearance, look, and feel may only be used if they have been reviewed by the Company. Medical claims are not permitted under any circumstance. Each Member shall truthfully and fairly describe the Company's products and programs in all discussions with customers, other Members, potential Members or others. For further information contact the PYUR Life Compliance Department.

Compensation Plan and Income Earnings Misrepresentations

Opportunities for income under the Compensation Plan are determined by many factors, including the ability and perseverance of the individual. You may not make statements alluding to the income potential of any prospective Member except as stated in Company literature or make statements regarding anyone's personal income without stating that the income is not necessarily representative of the income any typical Member can earn. Members must realize that Income Statistics provided by the company properly represent potential or average income figures. All income is strictly derived from sale of products. Misrepresentations of potential income earnings or the Compensation Plan includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Reviewing the Compensation Plan with any person without clearly stipulating that no remuneration is received solely for enrolling or sponsoring new Members.
- Reviewing the Compensation Plan with prospective Members without explaining the various entry levels and the differences between them.
- Representing or implying that all participants who enter into the business will succeed.
- Misrepresenting the amount an average Member might expect to earn in carrying on the business (for example, you may not show copies of Company-issued checks to represent potential earnings).

- Misrepresenting the amount of time an average Member would have to devote to the business in order to achieve income or Leadership levels. You may not represent or imply that it is relatively easy to succeed in the business but may only represent that a participant's success occurs through hard work and diligence.
- Representing through statements or implication that you will build a downline for any Member or prospective Member.
- Using any misleading, deceptive, or unfair recruitment methods.
- Promoting the Company, its products and/or business plan in conjunction with the sale of stocks or securities related to the Company.

You must present all entry and upgrade levels to new recruits before they sign the Application and Agreement.

Product Claims and Misrepresentations

You are prohibited from making or alluding to any medical or other prohibited claims regarding the prevention, treatment, cure, or mitigation of any disease from the use of Company products. Additionally, you may not:

- Discuss or make any warranties, representations or statements concerning Company products in a manner that is inconsistent with the Company-produced literature.
- Represent that the Company or products have been approved or endorsed by any government agency.
- Use or distribute for the purpose of marketing products or in promotion of the Compensation Plan, material other than Company generated sales aids or promotional materials. Prohibited materials include outdated Company produced literature no longer in circulation and those that a Member creates and produces for sale and distribution in his or her downline.
- Use disease specific names in promotion of the Company or its products.

SPONSORSHIP BUSINESS RULES

Rights to Choose Sponsor

Prospective applicants have the right to choose his or her immediate sponsor. Implied loyalty to an individual who made the initial Company introduction does not obligate one to accept that individual's sponsorship. (For example, prospective applicants are not obligated to be sponsored by someone who merely provides Company promotional material.) The Company does not have an obligation to settle or be part of any disputes concerning sponsorship. The sponsor of the new Member will be the Member indicated on the Application and Agreement signed by the prospective applicant and/or entered as the sponsor in the Company's computer system.

Once a Member Application and Agreement has been accepted by the Company and/or the account number has been assigned, sponsor changes are only permitted in the event of Company error, or if the Company is notified in writing by the new Member and/or the Members current and new Sponsor or Enroller before any commissions are paid.

Inducements to Select a Different Sponsor

Notwithstanding the Rights to Sponsor Policy, it is against Company policy to induce or allow an individual, family member, or business partner of an existing Member to sign up under your line of sponsorship for the purpose of circumventing the original upline from future income.

Company meetings are open to all interested parties. You must not imply that interested parties are not welcome to attend the meetings or imply that assistance will not be given to them if they are not in your downline. Members must feel secure when sending prospects to these meetings and all prospects attending the meeting should be referred back to the person that sent them. It is against Company policy to sponsor a prospect at the meeting who was sent by another Member.

You may not offer monetary rewards, free products or any other material inducement to entice a prospect to enroll under your line of sponsorship when it is made known that he or she has been working with another Member.

International Sponsoring

Members may sponsor Members and Customers outside of the continental United States. The Company, at its sole discretion, reserves the right to reject at any time any Members international distribution and sponsoring rights upon written notice at their last known address.

A Member's right to act as an International Sponsor or to receive commissions in a Country of Operation may be revoked at any time if the Company determines that the Member has not conducted themselves in accordance with the terms and conditions contained herein or the governing laws of the Country of Operation.

Members have no authority to take any steps in any country toward the introduction or furtherance of the Company. This includes, but is not limited to, any attempt to register or reserve Company names, trademarks or trade names, to secure approval for products or business practices, or to establish business or governmental contracts. Members agree to indemnify the Company for all costs incurred by the Company for any remedial action needed to exonerate the Company in the event you improperly act purportedly on behalf of the Company.

The Company reserves the right to establish additional Terms and Conditions that are applicable to a specific country. Members who conduct business internationally agree to abide by all special policies established by the Company for the specific Country of Operation.

Sponsor Information

Member Application: You must provide the Company with valid Sponsor details at the time your application is submitted. (This includes telephone applications.) Applications received without Sponsor information will be returned to the applicant unprocessed. The Company is not responsible for contacting the applicant or the upline to verify the information provided. Members who fail to provide a correct Sponsor will have their Change of Sponsor request denied.

Changes to Lines of Sponsorship

The Company will not permit any change in the line of sponsorship except in the following circumstances:

- Where a Member has been fraudulently induced into joining the Company or
- Where, due to Company error, the sponsor has been entered incorrectly into the Company database

With any such request, the Member must submit a written request of his or her current Sponsor and the additional signatures from the upline. If, at the time of the request, the requesting Member has a downline organization in place, the change will not be granted by the Company.

The Member must supply written consent of all Members in the organization whose income is arguably affected. However, the Company maintains the right of refusal if circumstances violate other Policies, Procedures and/or the Business Rules of the Company.

If you terminate your position in writing, you may rejoin under a Sponsor of choice after 90 days. Termination of the position will result in forfeiture of all rights, future/pending bonuses and commissions under the previous line of sponsorship. Members who voluntarily terminate their position may join a new position under a new line or the same line of sponsorship provided all requirements are met. Position transfers are subject to the Company's approval, which may be withheld at any time.

You may sign up in a new position under a different Sponsor if there has been no activity in the original position for the previous 90 days. As an inactive Member, you shall not refer to yourself as a PYUR Life Member or hold or participate in educational or promotional meetings. You should discontinue using any materials bearing the Company logo, trademark or service marks, you shall not continue to communicate with the Company, not attempt to sponsor or enroll new Members or otherwise sell Company products. If you are found to be actively pursuing the business during the inactive period, the Company reserves the right to refuse your application under a new line of Sponsorship. You must complete and submit a Voluntary Termination letter, and submit a new Application and Agreement. Members who wish to rejoin under these circumstances are eligible to join in a new position. Position transfers are subject to the Company's approval, which may be withheld at any time.

You are not permitted to persuade or attempt to persuade any other Member to terminate their enrollment with the Company in order to join your downline or use any unfair tactic or undue action to obtain any consent.

The Company reserves the right to assume any inactive or terminated position and transfer the position to another party at face value.

Sale or Transfer of Member Position

You ("Transferor") cannot sell, assign or otherwise transfer the rights of your Member position to any other person, firm or body corporate ("Transferee") without the express consent of the Company, which may be delayed or denied in the sole discretion of the Company and without a statement of reason(s). The Company reserves the right to prohibit or impose various terms and conditions, at its sole discretion respecting any proposed sale, assignment or transfer a Member position. The Company cannot authorize the sale or transfer of a position from one Country of Operation to another. The position will always remain in the Country of Operation in which it originated.

In order to receive such permission, the Transferor must be a Member in good standing as determined by the Company, and not be under any Compliance inquiry or sanction.

The Transferor must sign a letter requesting a Position Transfer authorizing the sale or transfer of their position. Additional information regarding the possible sale or transfer of a Member position might be needed in order for the Company to make their final decision.

The new owner is subject to all Company Policy and Procedures and Terms and Conditions. The position is available for a transfer at any level shown on the face of the Member Application and Agreement. All sale or transfers require that a Position Transfer and Member Application and Agreement be signed by Transferee and accepted by the Company. All signatures are subject to verification for authenticity.

Terminated Positions are eligible for Sale or transfer if the position has remained terminated (and/or inactive) for six (6) months. Positions terminated for disciplinary reasons are only eligible for sale or transfer once the six (6) months have expired, and there is no litigation or possible litigation pending concerning disciplinary actions taken by the Company.

Position Transfers for Members who have voluntarily terminated and/or inactive positions are strictly monitored for compliance with other policies as stated herein. The Company will deny position transfers at its sole discretion should it determine that the transaction will violate the Company Terms and Conditions and/or the spirit of the policy for which they are intended. Members using Position Transfers to violate policy may be subject to the Member Disciplinary Procedure.

Customers are not eligible for a Position Transfer into other existing positions in a downline organization. Customers wishing to become Members can sign up as a new Member, but cannot position transfer into an existing Member position.

The Company reserves the right to charge a Change of Ownership fee to process any position transfer requests.

Inheritance of Member Positions

Upon the death of a Member, all rights to the Members Position, including rights to commissions, bonuses and Member responsibilities, shall pass to the successors as stated in the Members will or as otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction. In the event the Member has no will, the rights to commissions, bonuses and Member responsibilities will be transferred according to the intestacy laws of the jurisdiction of the decedent's estate as provided by a valid court order. In order to receive transfer, the inheriting party(ies) must provide a certified copy of the Members death certificate or any other documentation required by the Company to evidence the true successor (including but not limited to a court order, copy of the Will, Letters of Testamentary in the event there is a Will and/or Letters of Administration in the event there is no Will).

The heir(s) must fill all responsibilities of the Member position and must sign the then-current version of the Member Application and Agreement. The heir may inherit and retain another Member position even though the heir(s) already operates an existing position.

Multiple Positions

We allow two accounts per household. This may be two individual account or an individual and a business account. If a Member/Member opens a business account, they must provide a EIN or TIN for tax reporting purposes. The second account must be in the same Downline organization of the first position owned. If we identify more than 2 accounts at a single household, these accounts will be terminated immediately.

Sponsoring Customers:

It is prohibited to sponsor Customers within your same household. This circumvents proper Sponsor Commissions. Any accounts found like this will be canceled and commissions will be reversed.

Joint Accounts:

You and your spouse may have independent accounts, or you can manage the same account. If you and your spouse would like to open and maintain a joint account, all income from that account must be reported under one name and one tax identification number. If you both choose to actively, manage the account, meaning you both want to update personal information such as the mailing address, credit card information or request commission withdrawals, you must contact the Home Office directly to give your spouse permission to make such changed on the account.

If a married couple divorces, the Company will abide by a final order of a court competent jurisdiction concerning the division and award of property interests and rights to each party. The concerned party must supply any documentation required by the Company to support each division.

The Company will not process any changes to an account during a pending divorce proceeding unless it receives written consent from both parties.

The Company reserves the right in any divorce proceeding to deposit commission checks with the applicable court of competent jurisdiction in the event of a dispute between spouses as to earnings.

Cross-sponsoring of Spouses/Household Members

You may not circumvent your original line of sponsorship by joining another downline organization or a different leg of your sponsor by sponsoring yourself, your spouse, dependent children, a household member ("related party") or any business or company operating under a business name (DBA) in which you and/or a related party have a direct or indirect ownership interest. Husband, wife, DBA, household members, partners and/or dependent children must all be in the same downline underneath the first position owned. It is permissible to be in separate legs provided they are under the first position owned.

Violations of this Policy will result in the termination of the cross- sponsored account, and you will be instructed to work exclusively in the original position. Neither the cross-sponsored position nor the downline organization will be moved. At opportunity meetings, the host may allow attendees to make public statements concerning improved health they have personally been witness to after use of Company products. During the testimonial segment of the meeting, the proper disclaimers must be displayed. The disclaimers must be spoken or displayed (see text below)

Use of Testimonials and Quotations in Promotional Material

It is very gratifying for everyone at PYUR Life to receive strong testimonials from satisfied and enthusiastic Members and customers about the safety and efficacy of PYUR Life's products. To correctly promote these testimonials, there are certain FDA guidelines we must follow. Therefore, exercise good judgment before you use or reprint a testimonial. A disclaimer must accompany all testimonies.

General Guidance Disclaimer Requirements

This policy is meant to give you some general guidance and to provide a standard disclaimer that must accompany all your audio and written testimonies. The all-purpose disclaimer is as follows:

“This statement [or, This testimonial] has not been evaluated by the Food and Drug Administration. The product mentioned is not intended to diagnose, treat, or prevent any disease. Your experience and health benefits might be different. No PYUR Life product is sold or marketed as a drug or as an alternative to a drug.”

Some testimonials you receive about PYUR Life products may contain explicit or implied disease claims (e.g., “X made my arthritis pain disappear.”), and the problem is that disease claims are prohibited for dietary supplements. If a Member receives a testimonial that contains a disease claim, e.g., I'm taking PYUR Life 's 'X' product instead of my prescription drug 'X' because I believe it reduces my risk of cancer” it is not to be published. In a testimonial, if any drug or disease is mentioned or implied (e.g., “My sneezing and coughing went away in hours after taking 'X' or “This works better than Viagra.’), then the Member must not include that statement. Instead, the Member may: 1) use compliant segments of the testimonial; or 2) if obtained from a customer, contact the customer and without putting words in their mouth- elicit statements that are similar to structure/function claims. Member may prompt with questions like: “What kind of health benefits did you experience?” or “Would it be fair to say that you felt energetic and alert?”

EXAMPLES:

Drug claim version: PYUR Life’s 'X' treated my chronic fatigue, ear infection, and I don't have anxiety attacks anymore.”

Compliant version: PYUR Life’s 'X' sustained my energy, bolstered my immune system, and I now maintain an even temperament.”

Drug claim version: Once I began using PYUR Life’s 'X,' my lower back and arthritis pain stopped and I don't need to take drugs.”

Compliant version: “Once I began using PYUR Life’s X,' I noticed the structural integrity of my joints and flexibility increased. I have better mobility, my health is on the rise and I look forward to.” In the first example, “chronic fatigue, ear infection [and] anxiety attacks” are considered drug/disease claims by the FDA. However “sustained energy, bolstered immune system” and “even temperament” are considered compliant structure/function claims.

In the second example, “lower back and arthritis pain” are considered drug/disease claims by the FDA, “joint mobility and increased flexibility” are considered compliant structure/function claims.

PYUR Life prides itself in its compliance effort with the Dietary Supplement Health and Education Act and all Food and Drug Administration (FDA) and the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) laws and regulations. We appreciate your cooperation in maintaining this compliance. Use the disclaimer that was given to you on all testimonials, and fliers or brochures you produce. If you need assistance on any items please feel free to contact the Compliance Department via email at support@PYURlife.com.

The Member must keep financial records (including, but not limited to, receipts, and invoices) with respect to the cost of materials and production of any such Independent Sales Tools and the proceeds from their sale. The Company shall have the right to examine and copy all such records immediately upon request.

The Company assumes no liability or responsibility with respect to Independent Sales Tools. Any Member who produces or distributes Independent Sales Tools bears the liability and responsibility for the material contained therein, and the Company assumes no liability for such items.

Dispute Resolution and Governing Laws

Member and the Company hereby agree that the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia shall govern these Terms and Conditions, the Compensation Plan and all components and provisions thereof, the Member Application and Agreement, and all aspects and elements of the relationship between Member and the Company. Member and the Company agree that any claim, dispute or other difference of any kind whatsoever between the Member, its officers, directors, shareholders, members, partners, or other employees or agents on the one hand, and the Company, its officers, directors, shareholders, members, partners, or other employees or agents on the other hand, shall be resolved, at the Company's election, in its sole and absolute discretion, by one or more of the following means:

- 1.) By mediation before The McCammon Group in Richmond, Virginia, on the terms and conditions set forth in The McCammon Group "Agreement to Mediate" in force at the time of mediation;
- 2.) By arbitration in Richmond, Virginia pursuant to the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association, including those rules provided for emergency extraordinary relief, with judgment on the Arbitration Award being entered in any court having competent jurisdiction thereof;

3.) By litigation in the general district and/or circuit courts of Hanover County, Virginia, with each Member and the Company hereby expressly agreeing to exclusive personal jurisdiction for any lawsuit in Hanover County, Virginia, and expressly agreeing to venue in Hanover County, Virginia.

In all events, Member agrees to pay all reasonable attorney's fees, court costs and all other mediation, arbitration, and/or litigation fees and costs incurred by Company in pursuing any of the foregoing avenues of dispute resolution. Furthermore, Member agrees to pay all reasonable attorney's fees and other costs incurred by Company in connection with any claim, dispute or other difference of any kind whatsoever between Member and Company, whether mediation, arbitration, or litigation is instituted or not.

Waiver: The Company never relinquishes its right to insist on compliance with these rules or with the applicable laws governing the conduct of a business. This is true in all cases, both specifically expressed and implied. In addition if the Company gives permission for a breach of the rules, for any reason, at any time, that permission does not extend to future breaches. This provision deals with the concept of "waiver" and the parties agree that the Company does not waive any of its rights under any circumstances short of the written confirmation alluded to above.
